Dear Ones,

Are you in the good habit of attending Sunday School class? Does the thought of Sunday School bring up thoughts of those old Bible stories you heard as a child? Do you envision that time on Sunday morning as being a time focused only on children? Might I challenge you to think about Sunday School in a different way?

We have Sunday School for every age group here at FCC Memphis. There are several options for the adults. Do you like the thought of the traditional adult "Standard Lesson." There are two classes waiting for you. Do you like a class that uses DVD's frequently and often provides lists of questions each week centered on portions of the Bible? FCC Memphis has such a class for you!

How about considering "Preacher's Class." In that class we have lots of conversation about a variety of topics. Our weekly discussions are always built on the foundation of Bible truth. The group meeting in the middle room of the church basement includes young adults and not so young adults. I am trying to say you will fit right in!

Last week, "Preacher's Class" was challenged to be more aware of people watching what we do and hearing what we say. We want to be good examples to folks. We also spoke of being more proactive with our influence ... purposing to engage with those around us. We want to be encouraging others in the Lord in word and in deed.

Will you consider joining us in a Bible class on Sunday mornings... I believe every adult class will be starting with fresh new studies on September 8th.

Lord Bless, Preacher Jack

Youth Minister's Post

One of my favorite Christian rap artist is Lecrae. All of his songs have a wonderful point or message to them. In his new album Gravity, Christian rap artist, Lecrae, has a song titled Tell The World. In verse 1 it says, "And you died for my lies, and my cheatin, my lust, and my greed; And what do I have to deserve this love?" Part of verse 2 says, "Your love is so deep, you suffered and took pain And died on the cross to gimme a new name." In verse 3 he quotes 2 Corinthians 5:17; "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, He is a new creation. The old has passed away, behold the new has come." The verse is talking about our baptism. After reading this verse and understanding what it is saying why wouldn't we want to tell the world? As Christians we should want to tell the world about this our Savior.

The key part to the song is the chorus. Here is what it says, "Tryna make the moments last, Holdin on to the past, But like a hero in a dream, Christ came and He rescued me! Now I'mma tell the world, tell the world, tell em, I'mma tell it everywhere I go. Tell the world, tell em, Yea I'mma billboard, Tell the world, tell em, Cast Him like a radio, Tell the world you are to know I'm brand new."

Let's go out and tell others about our wonderful, loving, and caring God that we serve!!

In Christ, Josiah Holloway
