Dear Ones,

I am thinking this afternoon about so many activities going on this summer. Some are already history! Some are just around the corner. We've had some special programs at church. Some of our activities are for the spiritual encouragement and enrichment of our FCC Memphis Church family. Some are planned to build bridges with our friends and neighbors. We want to connect with folk that we might connect them with Jesus! We have a few events we take into the community.

I look forward to the Fellow Night Out in July each year. The fellows do not go out as we usually do. We have a cook out for church family and friends. We appreciate that Jim and Alisa Kigar have offered their home as the location for this year's cook out again. Please mark July 16th on your calendar. Think about some friends or neighbors you could invite to join us that evening. Help us build some bridges!

The Scotland County Antique Fair is only weeks away! I would appreciate your help in planning and preparing that we may have a presence on the town square during the days of the fair. We want to use opportunities like this to get out and get acquainted with others in the community. We want to introduce people to our FCC Memphis family! Please contact me to get involved. Let's work together to build some bridges!

Lord Bless,

Preacher Jack

Youth Minister's Post

On his album Gravity, Christian rap artist, Lecrae, has a song titled Tell The World. In verse 1 it says, "And you died for my lies, and my cheatin, my lust, and my greed; And what do I have to deserve this love?" Part of verse 2 says, "Your love is so deep, you suffered and took pain And died on the cross to gimme a new name." In verse 3 he quotes 2 Corinthians 5:17; "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, He is a new creation. The old has passed away, behold the new has come." The verse is talking about our baptism. After reading this verse and understanding what it is saying why wouldn't we want to tell the world? As Christians we should want to tell the world about this our Savior. The key part to the song is the chorus. Here is what it says, "Tryna make the moments last, Holdin on to the past, But like a hero in a dream, Christ came and He rescued me! Now I'mma tell the world, tell the world, tell em, I'mma tell it everywhere I go Tell the world, tell em, Yea I'mma billboard, Tell the world, tell em, Cast Him like a radio, Tell the world you are to know I'm brand new." Let's go out and tell others about our wonderful, loving, and caring God that we serve!!

In Christ, Josiah Holloway
