Dear Ones,

Have you ever wished you could just set among friends and have a good conversation? Have you ever wished you could be among a group of folk who enjoy opening their Bibles and learning together what it says to us in 2013? We have a place for you at F.C.C. Memphis!

There are four options for adults to choose from every Sunday morning to be among friends learning from God's Word together. Two classes use the "Standard Sunday School Lesson" from Standard publishing. The other two classes are a bit more diverse in their range of Bible discussions. I am sure you will find a warm welcome any Sunday as we meet at 9:20 at the Church building before our 10:30 a.m. Worship service.

I am excited to be part of a class not defined by age or gender. We have no official name as a class. We are grandparents and new parents. We are older folk and younger folk. We are newer in the faith and well established in the faith. Some would say we are an eclectic group. One characteristic that binds us together is a common desire to grow in our knowledge of God's Word and how to live it out day to day. We meet in the middle of the Church basement.

I would invite you, if you do not already participate in a Bible class on Sundays at F.C.C. , to come visit us. I warn you though ... you will not be a visitor for very long until you become one of our eclectic ones!

Lord Bless,

Preacher Jack
